

Who Am I?

Name: Joe Spado
Nickname: Spadoman
Arrived RVN: February 1969
Left RVN: February 1970
Company: B
Platoon Mortar Platoon
Squad 4-1 Track
email: spadoman1@mac.com

Joe Spado 1969

I was from a suburb of Chicago named Melrose Park, but moved North shortly after returning to the world.

A dog we had at the Hard Spot near Dau Tieng early in 1969, We named this mascot ZigZag.jpg (243x240)

At the Hard Spot, near Dau Tieng mortar platoon early 1969.jpg (240x240)

Bed in 4-1 track.jpg (245x240)

Duke from Villa Park, IL near Chicago. jpg (244x240)

Fire Support Base Stoneman at least thats the name I wrote on the back of the picture 40 years ago.jpg (240x240)

Joe Spado and a guy nicknamed Buddy. jpg (240x245)

Joe Spado and squad member.jpg | This is me and a guy named Dewey Tilsch-Dewey was from Pennsylvania, (I think)- He was sent home after he developed a severe case of chloracne from Agent Orange (518x480)

Joe Spado.jpg (240x243)

John Pagonis 1969.jpg (240x245)

Miller the artist preparing The Logo.jpg (240x240)

Napalm.jpg (258x240)

Norm Sanders, Sanders was not in B company, Not even sure if he was in the triple deuce.jpg (249x240)

Sgt Jennings with Spadoman and RPG Feb 69.jpg (240x242)

Sgt Jennings, mortar platoon 4-1 squad leader early in 1969, around March .jpg (240x241)

Spadoman and Sinn in tower at a FSB somewhere, maybe FSB Stoneman.jpg (242x240)

Spadoman with Pagonis in bunker when we arrived in country, Feb 69.jpg (243x240)

Steve Sinn at the pool in Cuchi during a stand down.jpg (227x320)

The Eagles 5 Band, played at the Cuchi standdown - I remember getting on stage and singing with them.jpg (320x210)

The guy in the back is Hutton, I think, and Norm Sanders is on the right, Sitting in the mortar track, Co B 4-1.jpg (240x245)